

SMoCA Nights: 'CARAVAN'
October 18, 2007 9pm - midnight

---

The Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art [SMoCA] would like to thank Fall SMoCA Nights Caravan guest producers Charles and Sarah Walker, for all of their hard work that culminated into a stellar event on the night of October 18, 2007. Guests were able to enjoy cutting-edge art & fashion, innovative music, performances and the stylish panorama of the crowd.

SMoCA Nights Caravan attendees were able to enjoy an outdoor bazaar designed by Plus Minus Studio and the nomadic alt/folk duo Nowhere Man and A Whiskey Girl fronted by Amy and Derrick Ross hailing from Bisbee, Arizona. Palate-pleasing delights abounded from the likes of Royal Coffee Bar, Sweet Pea Bakery, and iblooms and guests learned more about 'where to live in Phoenix' from Where to Live books. Inside SMoCA, revelers got a taste for the vast proliferation of audio and projected video in a live jam setting with the visceral experience created by the Los Angeles VJ collective Museum / of / Traffic.

Guests who opted for the especially reserved runway seating also enjoyed a couture gift box specially created by the consummate gift-giving expert, "Only Collett." Collett also walked runway in the show!
