

TRAVEL

Travel Gifts

When temperatures in Phoenix skyrocket beyond the "but it's a dry heat" excuse, locals seek sanctuary in cooler places. For those with second homes in cooler locales, summer entertaining might be on the agenda. Guests of these home owners will enjoy an escape from the elements and should be prepared to thank their generous friends with a fitting gift.

Only Collett is available to make sure summer holiday gift-giving is as seamless as possible. Owner Collett offers unique and appropriate gift ideas for all travelers.

No coffee table is complete without a fascinating book, but sometimes these details can be forgotten in a second home. Instantly become the favorite guest by providing a book tailored to the interests of the hostess and by pairing it with a unique magnifying glass. This tusk magnifier is unique and looks intriguing on the coffee table in a beach house.

A trip to the gorgeous forests of Durango, Lake Tahoe and similar places will provide a sense of peace and tranquility. Spend some time relaxing in the cool mountain air and enjoy a game of cards with an Italian box of playing cards. The box is made of handcrafted Italian wood looks striking with its clean lines and rich wood tones – the perfect addition to any cabin setting. It fits nicely in a suitcase!

For the clever host and hostess, personalized gifts may be the ticket to making guests feel at home. These boxes of soaps are not only available in custom scents, they can be inscribed with a personal message, such as "Welcome to the Smith Home."

For more distinctive and couture gift ideas, visit onlycollett.com or call 602.957.1601.